TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I had the great privilege and pleasure to attend a shabbaton led by Rabbi Keleti in Budapest. The students are of very high caliber - intelligent, well educated and devoted to Rabbi Keleti. [The young man who translated for me from English to Hungarian has his Ph.D. in mathematics from Cambridge University. One woman studied international law in London.]

Rabbi Keleti builds his relationship with the students through learning. A shabbaton is a means to solidify group solidarity and provide a ruchni dimension to the learning. I was very impressed by the results of his method [which agrees very well with the methodology of Ohr Somayach].

Rabbi Keleti runs his organization virtually alone. It would be a great mitzva to aid him in his efforts.
